

Transportation

Air Travel

Hannover Airport (HAJ)

+49 511 977 – 0

<http://www.hannover-airport.de>

Hannover Airport is an international airport located just 64.3 kilometers west of Braunschweig. With many amenities for the traveler and frequent connections to Braunschweig, it is the recommended airport for travel to INSS 2007.

For a list of commercial airline carriers that provide service to Hannover Airport, please visit:

<http://www.hannover-airport.de/172.html?&L=1&MP=68-27>

An airport service center is located in the Arrival Level of Terminal B. Please visit the service center upon arrival for any of your travel needs.

Transport from Airport

Train

Upon arrival in Hannover, it is recommended to use train service to transfer to Braunschweig.

From the Airport, a train leaves to Hannover Central Station or Hbf (Hauptbahnhof = German for central train station) every 6 minutes past the hour (05:06, 06:06, etc...) and runs from 5:00 to 24:00. Cost of a ticket from the Airport to Hannover Central is 2,40 EUR and takes 17 minutes. Please see the link below for a map of the Airport Ground level in order to locate the train station:

<http://www.hannover-airport.de/gelaende.html?&L=1>

From Hannover Central Station or Hbf, there are two train options for transport to Braunschweig Hbf. The trains depart about every half hour starting at 04:47 and ending at 00:11.

*The InterCity (IC) Train costs 15,00 EUR and takes 34 minutes to Braunschweig Central Station.

*The local train (RE) cost 10,60 EUR and takes 46 minutes to Braunschweig Central Station.

Shuttle

There is also shuttle service available from Hannover Airport to Braunschweig. The cost of this service is 44,00 EUR per person maximum. Please visit the link below to arrange shuttle transportation.

http://www.braunschweig.de/english/business_science_education/conferences_conventions/airport_transfer.html

Rail Travel

For those conference attendees who would like to make their journey to Braunschweig entirely by train please visit the website of Die Bahn for train schedules and ticket prices:

<http://bahn.hafas.de/bin/query.exe/en>

Local Transportation

From Braunschweig Central Station or for personal travel during the conference, you can use either a taxi service or public transportation to reach your hotel. A tram or bus ticket costs 1,90 and is valid for 90 minutes of travel.